

Daurian Shrike*Lanius isabellinus*Subspecies *isabellinusStatus Rare breeding migrant and common passage migrant.Habitat Riparian forests, up to 2,000 m.Distribution Breeds in the central Tien Shan, from 1999 in the Shalkudysu and Tekes valleys and from 2004 at Tekes lake in the Terskey Alatau. During migration, north to the Chu valley and the Ili-Karatay region, and west to at least the Kyzylkum desert.Migration From mid-March to late May, and from late August to mid-October.Daurian Shrike Lanius isabellinus isabellinus, Kamennoe lake, Zhambyl province, April 2006 (Arend Wassink)Long-tailed ShrikeLanius schach*Subspecies *erythronotusStatus Scarce breeding migrant.Habitat Semi-deserts, deserts, and foothill semi-deserts and steppes (including villages and towns and agricultural fields), up to 1,500 m.Distribution Breeds north to Baygakum in the Syrdarya valley, Chulak-Espe in the Betpak-Dala